

PIANO RIALZATO

This architectural floor plan depicts a symmetrical building layout. At the top, a central corridor contains a staircase and two small rooms. Below this, two large rooms labeled 'D' (Dormitory) are positioned on either side of a central hallway. The hallway leads to two rooms labeled 'K' (Kitchen) and then to two rooms labeled 'R' (Recreation). At the bottom, two large rooms labeled 'P.S.' (Physical Space) are located. The plan includes various dimensions, door swings, and structural details such as walls and openings.
