The image contains two architectural drawings of a building, identified as 'Casa di viale Mazzini' in Milan.

The top drawing is a section labeled 'Sezione B-B'. It shows a cross-section of the building with a sloped roof on the right side. The section is divided into three main levels. The ground level is marked with a dashed line and a dimension of 0.00. The first floor level is marked with a dimension of 2.70. The second floor level is marked with a dimension of 5.70. The total height of the building is marked with a dimension of 6.55. The section shows a large open space on the ground floor, a smaller room on the first floor, and a room on the second floor. The roof is shown with a slope of 12.50%.

The bottom drawing is a plan view labeled 'Sezione A-A'. It shows a top-down view of the building. The plan is rectangular with a total width of 6.33 and a total depth of 2.70. It shows a large open space on the left, a smaller room in the middle, and a room on the right. The plan also shows a small square feature in the upper right corner.

Hand-drawn architectural floor plans and elevation of a building. The top left shows a partial floor plan with dimensions 3.60 and 1.35. The top right shows a floor plan with dimensions 4.70, 5.10, 4.80, and 3.20, and labels "CANTIERA" and "bagno". The middle left shows a floor plan with dimensions 1.35, 1.16, and 5.00, and labels "Cantina" and "Cantina". The middle right shows a floor plan with dimensions 13.60 and 13.60, and labels "Piano terra" and "Piano primo". The bottom right shows a red-colored elevation of a building with windows and a door, labeled "Piano terra" and "Piano primo".

The image contains two hand-drawn architectural sketches of a building facade.

The top sketch is a side elevation of a building with a gabled roof. It features a large window divided into four rectangular panes. A vertical dimension line on the right indicates a height of 9.25. The base of the building is shown with a rough, textured ground line.

The bottom sketch is a front elevation of a building. It features a red-outlined entrance area with a small gabled roof. The entrance area is divided into three vertical sections with dimensions 2.3, 2.4, and 2.0. A balcony is visible above the entrance. A vertical dimension line on the right indicates a height of 2.5. The base of the building is shown with a rough, textured ground line.
